Data Protection Policy February 2013

Introduction

S. Lilley and Son Ltd needs to collect and use information about the Data Subjects who we come into contact with in order to carry on our work. This information must be collected and dealt with appropriately— whether on paper, electronically, or recorded on other material - and there are safeguards to ensure this under the Data Protection Act 1998.

Data Controller

S. Lilley and Son Ltd is the Data Controller under the Act, and will determine what purposes the information held will be used for.

It is also responsible for notifying the Information Commissioner of the data it holds or is likely to hold, and the general purposes that this data will be used for.

Disclosure

S. Lilley and Son Ltd is unlikely to share data with other organisations, but in circumstances where this is required, the Data Subject will be made aware how and with whom their information will be shared.

There are circumstances where the law allows S. Lilley and Son Ltd to disclose data without the data subject's consent; these are:

1. Carrying out a legal duty as authorised by an appropriate legal officer
2. The Data Subject has already made the information public
3. Conducting any legal proceedings, obtaining legal advice or defending any legal rights

S. Lilley and Son Ltd places great importance on the correct treatment of personal information as a key element in the success of our working relationships, and in maintaining the confidence of those with whom we deal. S. Lilley and Son Ltd intends to ensure that personal information is treated lawfully and correctly.

To this end we will adhere to the Principles of the Data Protection Act 1998.

Specifically, the Principles require that personal information:

- shall be processed fairly and lawfully and, in particular, shall not be processed unless specific conditions are met,
- shall be obtained only for one or more of the purposes specified in the Act, and shall not be processed in any manner incompatible with that purpose or those purposes,
- shall be adequate, relevant and not excessive in relation to those purpose(s)
- shall be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date,

- shall not be kept for longer than is necessary
- shall be processed in accordance with the rights of data subjects under the Act,
- shall be kept secure by the Data Controller who takes appropriate technical and other measures to prevent unauthorised or unlawful processing or accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal information,
- shall not be transferred to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area unless that country or territory ensures an adequate level of protection for the rights and freedoms of data subjects in relation to the processing of personal information.

S. Lilley and Son Ltd will, through appropriate management, strict application of criteria and controls:

- observe fully conditions regarding the fair collection and use of information,
- meet its legal obligations to specify the purposes for which information is used,
- collect and process appropriate information, and only to the extent that it is needed to fulfil its operational needs or to comply with any legal requirements,
- ensure the quality of information used,
- ensure that the rights of people about whom information is held, can be fully exercised under the Act. These include:
 - the right to be informed that processing is being undertaken,
 - the right of access to one's personal information
 - the right to prevent processing in certain circumstances and
 - the right to correct, rectify, block or erase information which is regarded as wrong information
- take appropriate technical and organisational security measures to safeguard personal information,
- ensure that personal information is not transferred abroad without suitable safeguards,
- treat people justly and fairly whatever their age, religion, disability, gender, sexual orientation or ethnicity when dealing with requests for information,
- set out clear procedures for responding to requests for information.

Data collection

Informed consent

Informed consent is when

- a Data Subject clearly understands why their information is needed, who it will be shared with, the possible consequences of them agreeing or refusing the proposed use of the data
- and then gives their consent.

S. Lilley and Son Ltd will ensure that data is collected within the boundaries defined in this policy. This applies to data that is collected in person, or by completing a form.

When collecting data, S. Lilley and Son Ltd will ensure that the Data Subject

- clearly understands why the information is needed
- understands what it will be used for and what the consequences are should the Data Subject decide not to give consent to processing
- as far as reasonably possible, grants explicit consent, either written or verbal for data to be processed
- is, as far as reasonably practicable, competent enough to give consent and has given so freely without any duress
- has received sufficient information on why their data is needed and how it will be used

Data Storage

Information and records relating to service users will be stored securely and will only be accessible to authorised staff and volunteers.

Information will be stored for only as long as it is needed or required statute and will be disposed of appropriately.

It is S. Lilley and Son Ltd's responsibility to ensure all personal and company data is non-recoverable from any computer system previously used within the organisation which has been passed on/sold to a third party.

Data access and accuracy

All Data Subjects have the right to access the information S. Lilley and Son Ltd holds about them. S. Lilley and Son Ltd will also take reasonable steps ensure that this information is kept up to date by asking data subjects whether there have been any changes.

In addition, S. Lilley and Son Ltd will ensure that:

- 1. it has a Data Protection Officer with specific responsibility for ensuring compliance with Data Protection,
- 2. everyone processing personal information understands that they are contractually responsible for following good data protection practice,
- 3. everyone processing personal information is appropriately trained to do so,
- 4. everyone processing personal information is appropriately supervised,
- 5. anybody wanting to make enquiries about handling personal information knows what to do,
- 6. it deals promptly and courteously with any enquiries about handling personal information,
- 7. it describes clearly how it handles personal information,
- 8. it will regularly review and audit the ways it hold, manage and use personal information

9. it regularly assesses and evaluates its methods and performance in relation to handling personal information

10. all staff are aware that a breach of the rules and procedures identified in this policy may lead to disciplinary action being taken against them

This policy will be updated as necessary to reflect best practice in data management, security and control and to ensure compliance with any changes or amendments made to the Data Protection Act 1998.

In case of any queries or questions in relation to this policy please contact the Data Protection Officer.
